

Looking for your dream job...?

Huntington is hosting an extensive interactive career development seminar for ONG Airmen and Soldiers to help them succeed with their career searches.

Date: Saturday, 7 Dec 2013

Time: 0830 – 1530 Authorized to attend in UTA/AT status

Cost: FREE; Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be provided

Who: ALL Ohio National Guardsmen (Air and Army)

Attire: Civilian Business Casual (No ABU/ACU)

Location: Northwest Columbus (RSVP for Specific Location)

Hosts: Mr. Steve Steinour and Maj. Gen. Deborah Ashenhurst

Facilitators: HR VPs/Directors from numerous large corporations throughout Ohio

12 Key areas that will be covered:

- “The Unwritten Rules of the Highly Effective Job Search”
- Create a project plan
- Do a reality check
- Write your resume
- Gather information
- Talk to people – Networking (over 60% of people obtain their jobs through networking; NOT cold calls/applications)
- Follow up regularly
- Test 7 search techniques
- The Pierson Method of job searching
- Track progress
- Check progress
- Interview / Negotiations

RSVP by Tuesday, Nov. 12th via email at: nicole.l.ashcroft.mil@mail.mil

Capt. Nicole Ashcroft, ONG Employer Outreach, 614-336-7077

“When Called, We Respond with Ready Units”