Cincinnati-based Ohio Army National Guard unit returns home

Columbus – Ohio Assistant Adjutant General for Army, Brig. Gen. Matthew Kambic, will greet 130 Soldiers from the Ohio Army National Guard's Battery A, 1st Battalion, 174 Air Defense Artillery Regiment, as they return from their year-long deployment to Germany in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

The public is invited to the unit's welcome home ceremony at 9 a.m. May 8, at Tri-County Assembly Church, 7350 Dixie Highway, Fairfield, Ohio 45015.

The Soldiers mobilized out of Fort Leonard Wood, MO., where the entire unit reclassified and received training as military police to conduct community law enforcement in support of the United States Army Garrisons throughout United States Army Europe (USAREUR).

The unit, while conducting their mission, also participated in numerous events to include a German Marksmanship qualification match, and participated in International Police Marksman Competition, winning 7 awards for Excellence.
