Ohio National Guard military police unit to return from deployment

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Ohio National Guard will welcome home 130 Soldiers from the 323rd Military Police Company during a noon public ceremony Thursday, May 2, at the Cedar Creek Church, 29129 Lime City Road, Perrysburg, Ohio 43551.

The 323rd MP Company was responsible for perimeter security at Camp As Sayliyah, Qatar, which included manning multiple entry control points and performing site security.

Previous deployments for the 323rd include Operation Desert Storm (1990), Operation Noble Eagle (2001), Operation Iraqi Freedom (2003) and several state active duty mobilizations to assist in flooding and tornado relief.
