

Topic: Ask the Expert on Financial Literacy

When: Friday, April 1, 2016 from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM (EDT)

Where: The Destiny Center

1561 Old Leonard Ave

Columbus, OH 43219

Map-

<http://maps.google.com/maps?q=1561+Old+Leonard+Ave,+Columbus,+OH+43219+United+States&hl=en>

The Columbus District U.S. Small Business Administration is proud to announce the “First Friday Ask the Expert Series”. This monthly series is designed to bring various industry experts to answer your questions on a variety of topics concerning your business and network with professionals from all areas. You never know who you will meet!

All for FREE!

Register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ask-the-expert-on-financial-literacy-tickets-21111189135?>

The U.S. Small Business Administration will moderate the discussion and give you an opportunity to ask the questions that keep you as an Entrepreneur up all night.

Do You Know the Financial Documents you need for your business?

Do You Understand the accounting and tax documents required for your business?

Do You Know what Financial Documents your lender needs to finance your business?

This session will include several local experts that can answer those questions.

Ayisha Essick, Director and Sr. Business Management Consultant, OnTime Accounting LLC

Joe Armstrong, Assistant Vice President, Bexley Main Financial Center Manager for Fifth Third Bank

Ginny Payton Edgington, Associate Manager, Finance Fund Jenefeness Houston, Strategic Solutions Consultant,

Financial COMFORT Consulting LLC