CONNECTING TO THE COLLECTIONS

81MM MORTAR CARTRIDGE

This 81MM mortar cartridge has been painted by Howitzer Battery, 2d Squadron, 107th Armored Cavalry, circa 1980. Mounted for display on an oak board, the cartridge is painted with the unit designation and crossed cannons with a skull in the center. Near the cannons it reads, "2ND TO NONE. TIMELY. ACCURATE. DEADLY." On the reverse is painted "Donated by Captain Dunn and Painted By Dan "Scotty" Donovan."

Howitzer Battery was stationed in Alliance, Ohio from 1977 to 1993 and is the ancestor to Company H, 134th Support Battalion, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary this week.
