

Sgt. Tommie Davis

Company A, 237th Support Battalion ~ Cleveland

Raised in Cuyahoga County, Davis joined the Ohio National Guard in June 2015 for his family. “I wanted to set a good example for my younger siblings serving my country,” Davis said. He now leads by example, and is currently serving on state active duty supporting Operation Steady Resolve, providing relief to Ohioans affected by COVID-19 pandemic by working in the Greater Cleveland Food Bank. He says the most rewarding part of his service is “seeing smiles on people’s faces from our work and making them feel comfortable and supported in these uncertain times.”

Sgt. Tommie Davis supports Operation Steady Resolve, providing relief to Ohioans affected by COVID-19 pandemic, by working at the Greater Cleveland Foodbank.

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.