

Spc. Connor Miller

Battery B, 1st Battalion, 134th Field Artillery Regiment ~ Piqua

Miller grew up and currently resides in Butler County. He joined the Ohio National Guard because he wanted to serve his community and country. Miller's civilian job is assistant manager at a tire shop, which he says has stayed open and operated normal hours. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Miller is providing food packaging and distribution support to the Southeast Ohio Foodbank in Logan, Ohio. He said the most rewarding part of his mission has been, "having a direct positive impact on the families and communities that we are aiding."

Spc. Connor Miller is supporting food packaging and distribution operations at the Southeast Ohio Foodbank in Logan, Ohio during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.