

Sgt. Kyle Smith

Company E, 237th Support Battalion ~ Springfield

Smith, who resides in Stark County, joined the National Guard to serve his community and help with college expenses. He is currently employed as an accountant for a tire company. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Smith is providing food packaging and distribution support as part of Task Force Castle at Second Harvest Food Bank of Clark, Champaign and Logan Counties in Springfield, Ohio. “The COVID-19 pandemic had a major economic impact. Working at the local food bank we get to see that firsthand,” Smith said. “I am humbled to have the opportunity to give back to our local communities. People are waiting in line for hours to receive the food we hand out and they are all very thankful.”

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.
