

Cpl. Hunter Woods

Company B, 837th Engineer Battalion ~ St. Marys

Woods, who grew up and still resides in Auglaize County, joined the Ohio National Guard because “I felt that being an able-bodied male, I had a duty to serve my country,” he said. Like so many others, Woods was laid off from his civilian job because of the pandemic. He is currently a full-time student, majoring in criminal justice. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Woods is providing food packaging and distribution support to The Foodbank, Inc. in Dayton, Ohio. He said the most rewarding part of the mission is “being able to help a community in need.”

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.
