

Civil Air Patrol, United States Air Force Auxiliary Looking for Army and Air National Guard NCOs mentors.

Are you looking for a volunteer opportunity?

Civil Air Patrol is looking for current, former or retired Army and Air National Guard NCOs to serve as NCOs in the Ohio Wing CAP NCO program.

What is Civil Air Patrol? Civil Air Patrol (CAP) is a volunteer 501c organization that serves as the auxiliary of the US Air Force when performing missions in all 50 states.

Formed 1 December 1941 to assist the US military to train pilots and fly civilian aircraft for coastal anti-submarine patrol, border patrol and courier services. Serving under the Office of Civil Defense and Army Air Corps. When the US Air Force was created in 1948, CAP became the official auxiliary of the US Air Force.

The 3 missions of CAP, Aerospace Education, Cadet Programs and Emergency Services.

Teaching Aerospace Education to CAP members and to the public. Cadet Programs leadership training similar to JROTC. Emergency Services assisting in local search and rescue and disaster relief.

Senior member, composite and cadet squadrons can be found in your local communities around the state of Ohio and possibility at the armory or the base you are assigned.

Meetings are once a week for 2 hours with weekend or summer activities that are flexible with your military and civilian schedule.

Join at your current rank. E4-E5 serve as Staff Sergeants with all others serving at their current rank of E6-E9.

During 2020-2021 Civil Air Patrol assisted the state of Ohio performing aviation and disaster relief missions in local communities.

Civil Air Patrol is open to anyone interested volunteering regardless of rank, military service or disability.
